Dust: Met with a good demand. Clean good liquoring descriptions were firm to occasionally slightly dearer whilst others were irregularly little easier following quality. CD's were a good market, especially the cleaner type.

Comment: With offering slightly larger than last week, this sale met with a good demand following improved support from the Blenders as well as the Loose Tea Traders. Well made good liquoring sorts were the brightest feature of the sale and attracted widespread competition. Teas from the Northern District were easier. There were some withdrawals especially in the later part of the Sale.
