Tea
 Market Report

MARKET REPORT ON SALE NO 33 HELD ON DECEMBER 11, 2023

Offerings comprised of 68,496 packages of leaf. Weak demand led to easier prices. Withdrawals stood at 57% against 59% last week.

LEAF: Broken teas were generally easier by Tk.3/5 and often more for the medium and plainer types. Selective better types were in good demand and sold around Tk.205/- to Tk.265/- with 2 lots fetching Tk.282/- and Tk.301/-. Poor broken teas were sold around Tk.70/- to Tk.98/-. Northern broken teas where sold were easier.

Most fannings eased by Tk.3/6 from last rates with the medium and plainer varieties declining further and meeting large withdrawals. Selective best fannings were well sought after at firm to slightly easier rates fetching between Tk.204/ to Tk.238/- and 3 lots at 245/- to Tk.280/-. Some poor lines sold around Tk.65/- to Tk.99/-. Northern fannings declined and met large withdrawals.

DUST: 14,069 packages were offered. There was selective demand with prices declining by Tk.5/10 for most types and meeting with large withdrawals. Cleaner dusts however met irregularly firm to slightly easier prices. Well made powdery types met strong demand at firm to occasionally dearer rates. Withdrawals stood at 57% against 46% last week.

SALE NO:- Sale 34 will be held on December 18, 2023 at 8:30 A.M. in Chattogram. Total offerings will comprise of 76,102 packages leaf and 15,811 packages of dust.

COMMENTS: This sale had one of the largest offerings as a huge quantity of unsold teas from previous Auctions were printed. Demand was very selective and mostly confined to the better teas on offer. Subsequently, a very large quantity of teas met with no bids and remained unsold. Total withdrawals stood at 58%. Packeters were selective. Internal buyers were active for the best, some cheaper teas and the powdery types.
