-------------------------------	---	--

(Last year in brackets)

Quality: About maintained.

Demand: Good demand at easier rates.

Buyers: Blenders were the major contenders. Loose Tea Traders lent fairly good support.

LEAF-CTC:

Brokens: Well made good liquoring types sold well at easier rates of Tk. 3/5 from last. Others met with a fair demand at similarly easier rates. Poorer types shed more and suffered fair withdrawals.

Fannings: Best and the below best types sold well but eased by around Tk. 5/= from last. Other were easier with some withdrawals especially the poorer types.

Bought-Leaf Teas: Met with a fair demand and generally sold between Tk. 115/130. Select few better types however, ranged between Tk. 135/144.

Dust: Met with fair demand. Prices for most descriptions eased by Tk. 8/10 and occasionally more. There were some withdrawals.

Comment: A good demand prevailed for the offerings this week but at levels generally little lower than last. There were some withdrawals in the later part of the sale as buyers apparently fulfilled their requirement. Blenders were less forceful whilst Loose Tea Traders absorbed a fair weight. Dusts were easier and suffered fair withdrawals.
