Quality: Similar to last.

Demand: Good demand.

Buyers: Blenders were active. Loose Tea Traders lent fair support.

LEAF-CTC:

Brokens: Well made good liquoring types were readily absorbed at firm to occasionally little easier rates. Below best and mediums sold well at around last levels. Plainer sorts witnessed limited demand and suffered fair withdrawals.

Fannings: Clean, useful liquoring types met with a good demand and mostly sold at around last levels. Mediums were steady. Plainer types witnessed less demand and a fair weight remained unsold.

Bought-Leaf Teas: Met with selective demand. Prices were mostly around last. There were however, large withdrawals.

Dust: Met with a fairly good demand. Good liquoring types sold well at levels firm to often little easier than last. Others met with a fair demand. Cleaner CD's were a good market.

Comment: This sale, scheduled to be held on July 22nd was postpone by a week and held on July 29th due to the countrywide unrest. Offerings witnessed a good over all demand with buyers operating actively especially the blenders. Prices were generally firm to little easier following quality. Select few popular well made types continued to receive active support and sold at premium levels. Dusts were a good market especially cleaner CD's.
