Dust: A small weight of clean good liquoring types offered were keenly sought after mainly by the Blenders and sold at firm to dearer rates. Mediums were steady. Poorer types were neglected. Powdery types were a good market especially the cleaner sorts.

Comment: Offerings were less this week which however, met with a good demand mainly from the Packeteers who were particularly active for the small weight of the cleaner types on offer. Prices were generally around last. There were a few withdrawals mostly confined to the poorer types on offer.
