Dust: Met with a good demand at rates irregularly firm to generally little easier than last. Blenders were the major out-lets with Loose Tea Traders lending only a fair support.

Comment: There was initially a good demand which however, slackened as sale progressed leading to an easier market with fair withdrawals. Packeteers were the major out-lets whilst Loose Tea Traders lent much less support. Dusts were a good market but prices were generally little easier than last.

We wish all our readers EID MUBARAK.
